Trespass/7700 blk W Deschutes Ave- The clerk reported a male was acting strange inside the store and would not leave when asked. Officers arrived and contacted the 33 year old male outside the store. Officers dealt with the male several times over the past 2 days. He is transient and high on meth. He was trespassed from the store and told that if he returned he would go to jail. Approximately an hour later he returned and was arrested for criminal trespass.

Theft Shoplift/6600 blk W Canal Dr- Loss Prevention called to report a male had concealed a Leatherman type tool and fled the store without paying. He was seen getting into a red colored Ford Escort headed east on Canal. Officer Meiners located the vehicle near Canal and Volland and stopped it near Canal and Neel. A 27 year old male and 26 year old brother were stopped and detained without incident. An investigation determined 27 year old stole 5 Leatherman/Gerber style utility tools. His 26 year old brother was never in the store and was not with his brother during the shoplift, however he admitted to knowing the tools were stolen and actually opened the packaging to one of the stolen tools and had it in his pocket at the time of detainment. Both were booked into the Benton County Jail.

Warrant Service/600 blk S Fir St- Officer Engel responded to this address regarding a disturbance between two males. They got into a verbal argument about the use of a stove inside the residence. First male allegedly pushed the second. First male was contacted and arrested on an unrelated warrant out of Franklin County.

Burglary/600 blk N Arthur St- Complainant reported that her Kindle reader was stolen from her residence in the past two days. She did not have any suspect information and believes that someone may have entered the apartment when it was left unsecured when she walks her dog.

Order Violation/400 blk S Dennis- Officers responded for a report that a male was at the location in violation of an order. On arrival, officers found him standing on the sidewalk directly in front of the location. Officers contacted the male who is known to run and ordered him to get on the ground. He did not comply and began yelling at officers, stating he had done nothing wrong. He was taken into custody at which time he became out of control and refused to sit in the patrol vehicle. While searching him, he thrashed about and attempted to turn on officers. Officers were eventually able to get him in the patrol car at which point he began kicking the door and smashing his head against the cage. He was transported Benton County Jail where he was booked for the Order Violation, Resisting, and Malicious Mischief as he damaged the patrol vehicle during the incident.

Fail to Supervise/1000 blk S Zillah- 9 year old called her father, telling him that her mother had left the residence in her vehicle, was intoxicated, and had left her home alone. Officer Noble responded and confirmed that the child was home alone. The child's father responded and took custody of her. The location of mom is not known, and it is unknown if she is aware that the child is with her father and no longer at the residence. Case forwarded to the City Attorney for charges

Assault/5600 blk W Clearwater Ave- Officers responded for a report of a male that was found in his room with a large head wound. Complainant reported that she found the male in his room with a large wound to his head. She stated the male was sharing the room with another male that she only knows by his first name. She stated that she is an acquaintance of victim and had a room across the hall from him. She stated that the two males had been drinking earlier and they got in an argument over who was paying for the room. She was able to get them calmed down and she returned to her room. About an hour later, the suspect pounded on her door, told her that the victim attacked him in his sleep and they got in a fight. She then found the victim in his room on his bed with the head injury. The suspect then left on foot according to the witness. Detectives were called in to assume the investigation. CID located and booked the suspect into jail for Assault 2.

CAT

Warrant Arrest/6th Ave & Ivy St- Detectives Dorame and Schwartz initiated a traffic stop and arrested a male on two outstanding warrants. Two other occupants were detained on warrants out of Union Gap, but were released after Union Gap elected not to confirm.
