A Shift

Suspicious Circumstance/3000 blk W Kennewick Ave- Female attempted to cash a payroll check from a business but was refused. The cashier got a copy of her license and the check. She left with the check before officers arrived.

Suspicious Circumstance/1300 blk W 4th Ave- 16 year old female walked home and a very nice full size truck, black and grey in color, recently washed, four doors and a long bed and chrome or aluminum after-market wheels drove by her and honked. It was driven by a unknown Hispanic male, "chunky" build, mid-late 30s, short black spiky hair, well-groomed goatee, wearing a black fleece zipper jacket with no accent who rolled up and offered her a ride home several times. She refused the male drove around following her until 4th and Olympia where she called her mom and male left.

Theft/7800 blk W Deschutes Ave- Complainant and his girlfriend took in the girlfriend's 11 year old sister who was in a bad living arrangement with her mother in OR. The sister was caught shoplifting and grounded as a result. She called her mother who came unannounced and picked her up. The 11 year old also made off with a pair of Beats headphones and later admitted to taking them from the residence. Forwarded to the Prosecutor for review.

Malicious Mischief/400 blk S Dayton St- Security video shows a large frame male wrapped in a blanket walk by a car and break a rear window. The male is not identifiable. Nothing was taken.

Assault/1000 blk W 10th Ave- One student was antagonizing another and the other student attempted to fight him as a result. Staff stepped in and tried to restrain the student who punched a staff member in the face. JCR complete.

Mental/100 blk E 5th Ave- Nightshift dealt with a female twice last night each time the issue was temporarily resolved by Crisis. The female then got in a car with a stranger and asked him to take her to Crisis. He took her to the area and dropped her off. We located her and transported her to Crisis then to Trios.

C Shift

Theft/4600 blk W Clearwater- Loss Prevention had detained a male for shoplifting. As they walked him to the office, he pulled away and fled the store. They recovered the property which was not high dollar. They did have good photos of the suspect.

A Shift

Death Investigation/1200 blk W 10th Ave- 59 year old female passed away naturally and was found by her boyfriend in the morning. Coroner confirmed nothing suspicious.

Disturbance/1000 blk N Kellogg- 29 year old male was inside the clinic causing a disturbance, making threats he was going to kill people and talking about god. When contacted by the first officers he became uncooperative and tried to run away from the officers. He was advised he was not free to leave until they evaluated his state of mind. He reportedly was carrying at least one knife according to the staff at the clinic. The clinic was full of patients and the officers tried to contain him in one of the patient rooms but he continued to resist fight them. It took 5 officers to subdue the male and get him handcuffed. During the original scuffle with officers furniture inside one of the patients' room got damaged and the suspect was tased with no effect. After a lengthy visit to Trios to get him medically cleared he was taken to jail and eventually after Crisis arrived at the jail and talked to him did the jail take custody of the suspect.

Shoplifter/7400 W Canal Dr- Male allegedly stole a $50 jacket from the clothing store. An employee videotaped the subject trying on the jacket, pull off the security tag and leave the store without paying. The subject was contacted by the employee but ran away.

Graffiti/200 blk S Auburn St- Complainant advised unknown subject had spray painted on the outside wall of the building. They already painted over the tag.

Burglary/1800 blk S Rainier St- Complainant is the owner of the house that burned a few days ago when he left the propane heater on in the garage. The house sustained severe damage but there was a TV in the living room that is now gone. He suspects the restoration company that is supposed to be cleaning up the property but has no evidence it was them. The rear slider was unsecured.

C Shift

Disturbance/1600 blk S Fruitland- A neighbor reported hearing screaming at the location. Officers have made previous contact and were familiar that a female and her adult son live at the location. They have been staying in a tent in the backyard. The house is her parents. The son was arrested on two felony warrants. She was arrested for Rendering Criminal Assistance. She had tried to prevent officers from contacting her son and lied about him being present while aware of his warrants. Report forwarded to Code Enforcement due to living in the tent.

Disturbance/700 blk S Hawthorne- Patrol responded to a disturbance at the location involving people fighting with one being pepper sprayed. Location is familiar to have gang association. CAT also responded and handled the investigative portion of this incident. This included a search warrant and multiple arrests.

Hit & Run/3200 Blk W 7th Ave- A red 2001 Ford Explorer collided with a power pole at the location completely knocking the pole out of the ground. The pole fell across the SUV and power lines fell to the ground in all directions. The driver was seen fleeing on foot. The SUV is associated with a male who has a suspended license. KFD responded to assist with making things safe and checking the vehicle for occupants. PUD was called out and spent the night replacing the pole and restoring power.

CAT

Disturbance & Narcotics/600 & 700 blk S Hawthorne St- Patrol and CAT responded to a report of a physical fight. Complainant reported her sons were fighting with the neighbors and one of her sons had been pepper sprayed. CAT arrived and detained a male as he was trying to drive away. Detectives could see a small bag of methamphetamine on the floor at his feet. Most of the people involved weren't very cooperative and nobody wanted to be a victim of an assault. Detectives conducted a safety sweep of the residence and found a 25 year old male hiding under a blanket. He was booked of a felony warrant. CAT detectives obtained a telephonic search warrant for the vehicle and recovered methamphetamine. That male was booked into Benton County Jail for POACS/METH. Second male was booked into Franklin Co. Jail for a felony warrant.

B Shift

Auto Theft/3300 blk W 7th Ave- Walla Walla SO contacted a 25 year old male near the Snake River early this morning. He was high on drugs and proceeded to tell WWSO deputies that he had been kidnapped while at a meth party in Pasco last night. He claims that he was tossed into the back of a van and brought to the river, where he managed to escape. He brought the deputies to the van, which was still running and unoccupied. The van is registered out of Kennewick. Officer Johnson made contact with the business and determined that it had been stolen sometime during the night. The vehicle was towed regarding the kidnapping claim.

Assault 4th DV/00 blk N Sheppard Pl- Officer Sneyd contacted a 21 year old female regarding a physical domestic that occurred earlier this morning. She reported she and her 23 year old boyfriend got into a verbal argument at approximately 0200 hours. Their 4 month old child was crying, and he became frustrated due to the crying. She stepped in to help, and the two began arguing. He allegedly grabbed her by the arms and threw her down. She had bruising on her arms consistent with the allegation. He was contacted in the 100 blk N Union St and he was arrested without incident. Booked into Benton County. A pre-trial no-contact order has been issued.

Malicious Mischief/200 blk N Fruitland St- Complainant reported that sometime last night an unknown suspect smashed a window on one of the work trucks. A radio, valued at $25, was taken from inside the truck. No witnesses or suspects have been identified.

Warrant Service/27th Ave & Olympia St- Officers contacted a vehicle at this intersection regarding a welfare type call on this vehicle. The driver was found to be asleep at the wheel. Officers woke up a 34 year old male and medics checked him out. He was found to be in good health. He was arrested for an outstanding warrant. A syringe with heroin was found in his pocket and will be sent to the lab for testing.

Warrant Service/5600 blk W Clearwater Ave- Officers Johnson and Engle responded to this location reference the location of a wanted person. An anonymous party stated that a 40 year old male was working at the location and had warrants. The warrants were confirmed and he was taken into custody without incident. Booked into Benton County.
