

The Kennewick Historic Preservation Commission guide contains several of the many homes and buildings that historic Kennewick is proud of. Please feel free to discover these and many more!

Kennewick Historic Preservation Commission

Historical Guide

On the cover

Farmers Exchange Bldg
227 W Canal, built 1935

The Hopper House
522 W 1st, built 1923

Inside:

1. Methodist Church
2 S Dayton Ave, built 1922

2. Sanders Place
1929 W 10th Ave, built 1920

3. The Lundy House
529 W Kennewick Ave, built 1908

4. Roxy Theater
101 W Kennewick Ave, built 1920

5. Emigh House
204 E Kennewick Ave, built 1910

6. United Pentecostal
201 S Auburn St, built 1900

7. The Watkins Bldg
27 N Auburn St, built 1906

8. Ree Reynolds House
626 W Kennewick Ave, built 1930

Kennewick Washington

Located in beautiful southeastern Washington State, Kennewick is the largest of the Tri-Cities. Founded in 1904, Kennewick recognizes the importance of an appreciation of Kennewick's historic properties in encouraging the rehabilitation of historic buildings as one of means of economic revitalization of Kennewick's historic downtown. With many homes and buildings representing different architectures throughout the past century, Kennewick's past is as fascinating as it is educational.

Kennewick Historic Preservation Award

Each year the city of Kennewick will present its Historic Preservation Award to the home, building, person/persons, and or groups that represent the spirit of keeping the past alive for the future. If you would like to learn more about the award, please go to the City of Kennewick's website, go2kennewick.com

